Experience

- August 2023 – Present   Technical Associate at GFGSC-LIET

  As a major contributor to the tech team at my college, I oversaw successful hackathons, coding competitions, webinars, and lectures. Skilled collaborator who transforms events into tech experiences to remember. Through this experience, I improved my ability to work with others, collaborating with my amazing team with ease.

- October 2023 – November 2024   Sales & Marketing Operations Intern at Tech Analogy (Remote)

  During my first job in the industry, I participated in creative campaigns, adapted sales tactics, and conducted market research. I came here because I was enthusiastic for team management and industry insights, and I can guarantee that my strategic intelligence and practical style will increase your team's success.
